

Vacancy Notice for the post of

REMIT Policy Officer (Grade AD7) in the Market Monitoring Department of the Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators

REF.: ACER/2016/11

Publication	External
Title Function	REMIT Policy Officer
Parent Directorate-General / Service	DG ENER (BXL)

1. WE ARE

The Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators (hereinafter referred to as “the Agency”) is a European Union (“EU”) body, legally established by Regulation (EC) No 713/2009¹ and operational since 2011. Based in Ljubljana (Slovenia), the Agency is central to the liberalisation of the EU's electricity and natural gas markets.

The purpose of the Agency is to assist National Regulatory Authorities (“NRAs”) in exercising, at Union level, the regulatory tasks that they performed in the Member States and, where necessary, to coordinate their action.

In this respect, the Agency:

- a) Complements and coordinates the work of NRAs;
- b) Participates in the creation of European network rules;
- c) Takes, under certain conditions, binding individual decisions on terms and conditions for access and operational security for cross border infrastructure;
- d) Gives advice on electricity and natural gas related issues to the European institutions;

- e) Monitors the internal markets in electricity and natural gas and reports on its findings.

The main areas on which the Agency's activities focus are:

- supporting European market integration: this is mainly done through the development of common network and market rules as well as through the coordination of regional initiatives which are concrete efforts from market participants to work towards greater integration,
- advising the EU Institutions on trans-European Energy infrastructure issues: the Agency issues opinions on ten-year network development plans to ensure that these are in line with priorities set at EU level,
- energy market monitoring: the Agency has a general mission in terms of market monitoring at the EU level and has, since the end of 2011, a very specific responsibility when it comes to oversight of the wholesale energy trading.

Regulation (EU) No 1227/20112 on Wholesale Energy Market Integrity and Transparency (REMIT) has introduced new rules prohibiting abusive practices affecting wholesale energy markets. According to REMIT, ACER has to collect both transactional and fundamental data necessary to monitoring of wholesale energy markets, in close collaboration with national regulatory authorities (NRAs), in order to detect and deter market abuse.

The Agency currently has a staff of more than 80 people and an approved annual budget of €15.8 million in 2016. The Agency's internal structure comprises four Departments (Electricity, Gas, Market Monitoring and Administration) and the Director's Office.

The Agency is located in Ljubljana (Slovenia).

2. WE PROPOSE

The Market Monitoring Department is responsible for the Agency's wholesale energy market monitoring programme under REMIT.

The tasks of the REMIT Policy Officer in the Market Monitoring Department will include the following:

- Conducting policy work (drafting guidance, analysing market abuse practices, drafting the Agency's staff letters etc.) related to the Agency's overall regulatory policy on REMIT, including:
 - Drafting or reviewing guidance documents in order to aim at ensuring a coordinated approach under REMIT, including
 - Drafting recommendations to the European Commission on market rules, standards, and procedures which could improve market integrity and the functioning of the internal market;
 - Preparing the annual report on the results of the Agency's market monitoring activities under REMIT;

- Contributing to the preparation of the annual report on the activities of the Agency and to the preparation of the annual work programme;
- Contributing to the monitoring of wholesale energy markets under REMIT by reviewing internal case assessments, including from a REMIT policy perspective, and by participating in the internal deliberation process of potential cases under REMIT;
- Contributing to the Agency's tasks in promoting a coordinated approach among national regulatory authorities under REMIT;
- Participating in and, sometimes, leading the various project streams that the Agency is setting up to fulfil its tasks;
- Representing the Agency in meetings with internal and external stakeholders;
- Developing a smooth cooperation and communication between the different members of the team, as well as across the Department and across the Agency.

The tasks involve regular liaison with other areas within the Market Monitoring Department and the Agency's market monitoring network with market surveillance experts from ESMA, National Regulatory Authorities, national financial regulators, national competition authorities and other competent authorities at EU and national level, as well as communicating with other external stakeholders.

The jobholder will work in the Market Monitoring Department, under the direction of the Head of the Market Monitoring Department and/or the relevant team leader in the Market Monitoring Department.

The jobholder will be required to act with a service culture, handling files with confidentiality and utmost professional integrity, being able to show excellent interpersonal and communication skills. He/she is expected to be proactive, with a team spirit, good management of stress, good level of flexibility, being able to prioritise, delivering quality and results with attention to detail and commitment to excellence.

The jobholder may be required, at times, to assist in other areas of work of the Agency, according to needs and priorities, as planned and defined by the Director and the Head of the Market Monitoring Department.
